Litigation Support Services

The Lowers Forensics International team uses sound accounting and investigative skills to analyze your litigation concern. Attorneys and their clients turn to us for evidentiary documentation to present the strongest and most persuasive case possible.

Financial Investigations and Economic Damage Quantification

Examining financial documents, tax returns, and more during the course of litigation, we take complex financial data and transform it into clear, fact-based evidence. Our bench is deep, filled with certified public accountants, certified valuation analysts, fraud examiners, and cyber loss authorities.

Expert Witness Testimony

We provide the qualified, well-reasoned expert witnesses you need to validate the veracity of issues related to the matter at hand. Our experts can also help in preparing written questions for and responding to questions from the opposition during the discovery process and interrogatories, as well as analyzing the other party's work products through the settlement phase.
