

Jennifer Wolfgang

Account Manager
Lowers & Associates

Professional Summary

A risk management professional with many years of experience in the field of operational and enterprise risk, Jennifer serves as a liaison between customers and the Lowers & Associates team. Jennifer is responsible for the day-to-day management, growth, and retention of all accounts, contributing to organizational growth and client success.

Prior to her current role, Jennifer served as an operations support specialist at Lowers & Associates where she engaged with clients and managed the delivery of risk and security programs. Adding to her experience in the field, Jennifer also spent time as a criminal records researcher.

Areas of Expertise

- Risk Management
- Financial Services Industry
- Operations
- Research

Education

Indiana University of Pennsylvania, Bachelor of Arts,
English Literature